

UNIVERSITY of PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

people • excellence • impact

This course explores the construction of British national identities in the twentieth century, in particular how issues of class, gender, race and nationalism have been represented in popular culture. Topics may include the social impacts of World War I, the experience of the Depression era, British Fascist movements, the Blitz, post-war austerity, youth culture, multi-racial Britain, and football violence. Course materials include journalism of the period, film footage, oral history, diaries, pop music and contemporary cinema.

HIST4720 – Britain in the 20th Century
Winter 2021 - T/Th 4:00 - 5:15 PM
Dr. Susan Brown

UNIVERSITY of PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

people • excellence • impact

This course examines major economic, political, and cultural developments within Prince Edward Island during the 20th century. Topics include the effects of technological change; Maritime Union; federal-provincial relations, including transfer payments and the 15-year Comprehensive Development Plan; "Rural Renaissance"; the constitutional discussions of the 1980s and 1990s; and the debate surrounding construction of the "fixed link."

HIST4890 – 20th Century Prince Edward Island
Winter 2021 – Tuesdays 1:30-4:00 PM
Dr. Ed. Macdonald

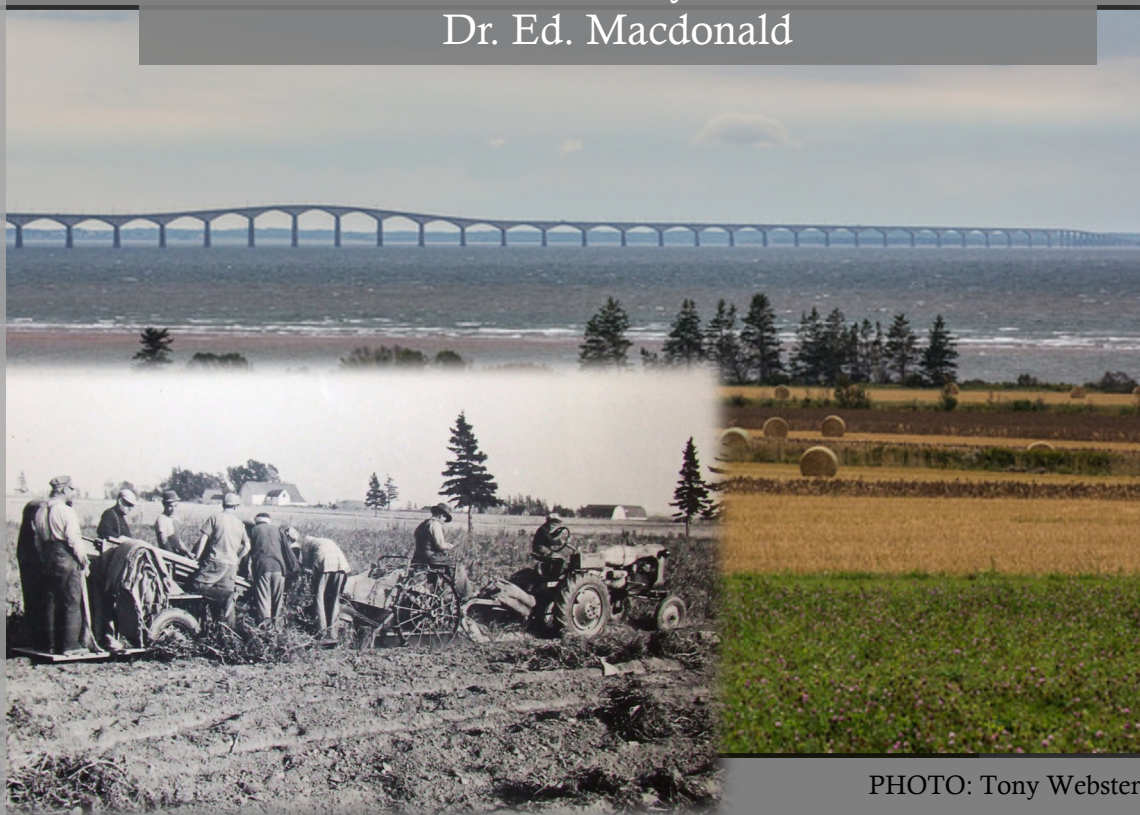

PHOTO: Tony Webster

Potato Harvester- 1940s PEI

<https://artefactspei.weebly.com/potato-picker.html>