

UNIVERSITY of PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

people • excellence • impact

HIST3860 - Women, the Law and Civil Rights in 20th Century Canada
Winter 2021 - T/Th 10:00 AM - 11:15 AM
Dr. Sharon Myers

This course examines the changes that have taken place in the historical roles of women in Canadian society and the relationship of these changes to social, economic, and intellectual developments. Topics of study include the achievement of voting rights, struggles for equality in the workplace, the regulation of sexuality and reproduction, and the intersections of class, region, and gender. Using both a thematic and chronological approach, the course examines women's roles from the achievement of suffrage to the present.

Statue of the "Famous Five", Ottawa

UNIVERSITY of PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

people • excellence • impact

HIST3410 – German History since 1648
Winter 2021 - M/W/F 9:30-10:20 AM
Dr. Ian Dowbiggin

This course covers the political, diplomatic, social, economic, and cultural history of Germany since the Reformation. It explores topics such as the Thirty Years' War, Austro-Prussian rivalry in the 18th century, German unification in the 19th Century, World War One, Hitler's Third Reich, the division of Germany after 1945, and Germany since the collapse of communism.

“West Berliners crowd in front of the Berlin Wall early on November 11, 1989 as they watch East German border guards demolishing a section of the wall in order to open a new crossing point between East and West Berlin, near the Potsdamer Square” (<https://www.cbsnews.com/pictures/the-fall-of-the-berlin-wall-and-end-of-a-divided-germany/25/>)