

You're invited to our Irish-themed book launch

You may know Owen Connolly as the guy whose bust is on top of the Churchill Arms building in downtown Charlottetown. But his remarkable rags-to-riches story, including leaving his fortune so PEI students of Irish Catholic heritage could gain a higher education (many of them at SDU or UPEI), is well delivered in this new book by Leonard Cusack. Join us to celebrate:

OWEN CONNOLLY BOOK LAUNCH

Thursday evening,
Nov. 30, 7-9 p.m.

PEI BREWING COMPANY
KENSINGTON RD., CH'TOWN

*featuring authentic Irish music
by 'Omos'*

Island Studies Press
at UPEI

SOFT COVER &
SOUVENIR COPIES AVAILABLE FOR SALE & SIGNING