

Understanding the Lived Experience of Persons with COPD in PEI

Hailey Arsenault

Abstract: The purpose of this study is to understand and examine the lived experiences of individuals who have been diagnosed with COPD, and who have participated in a 12-week Pulmonary Rehabilitation program. Specifically, this research will examine the physical, mental and social aspects of the disease and the program.